Alexander Hamilton—Before Broadway

Presented by Jim Bach

Sunday, March 17th 4:00 pm

Jim Bach's latest thriller is a little of everything. With inspiration from Lin-Manuel Miranda's Broadway musical, he blends Hamilton's life in New York City and the tale of the tailor and spy, Hercules Mulligan, with local New Canaan Parish history.

Hamilton's early nearby adventures closely tracked that of several other heroes that our town produced including Major Tallmadge and Sergeant William Brown.

Hear about a few of George Washington's favorite indispensable aides and one who saved his life—actually twice. Jim may not sing or dance, but his talk is not to be missed!

Refreshments to celebrate St. Patrick's Day will be served.

New Canaan Antiques, Art and Jewelry Show

Saturday, March 9th 10 am—4pm

Sunday, March 10th 11am—4 pm

An eclectic group of dealers will offer a wide selection of vintage and antique items. There will be all kinds of jewelry from fun to very fine. On sale will be paintings, small furniture, rare books, pottery, clocks, watches, silver, and interesting finds from the 18th century to the mid-century.

A percentage of every purchase will go to support the Historical Society's exciting new events and happenings. So, if you need a decorative touch for the hallway, a unique gift, or perhaps another piece of barware for your next party – come by and take a look. Entry is $5 (good for both days.)

Save the date June 1st for the New Canaan Museum & Historical Society's June benefit, Step into Summer.

Celebrate under the tent and throughout the campus. A new exhibit—Shoes—opens that night in the Bishop gallery. It explores the shoe industry in town from 1768-1920 and will display dozens of pairs from our collection.

Live music by Doghouse and a whiskey tasting in the Tavern. Mark your calendars now!
