On Friday, October 22, attendees will visit both The Glass House, a site of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and a second architectural gem in New Canaan.

On Saturday, October 23, the New Canaan Museum & Historical Society will offer a morning symposium organized by Cole Akers, Curator + Special Projects Manager, The Glass House. The symposium will be followed by lunch, an afternoon tour of a selection of New Canaan’s modern houses, and an evening cocktail reception where architects, designers, and visitors can gather at the end of the day’s activities.

October4design is a month-long celebration of art, architecture, community, and design in New Canaan offering lectures, programs and educational experiences for all ages throughout the month at locations in New Canaan. Visit october4design.org for information and to see the calendar of events.

Advanced reservations can be made along with payment by contacting Nancy Geary at ngeary@nchistory.org or 203 966-1776 ext. 2.
